LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Roan. "To him who in the love of Nature holds
Communion with her visible forms, she spea
A various language; for his gayer hours
She has a voice of gladness, and a smile
And elequence of beauty, and she glides
Into his darker musings with a mild
And healing sympathy, that steals away Their sharpness, ere he is aware." Never was I more forcibly impressed with he great beauty and truth of the above than when, as a weary exile, I visited that grand old mountain, the Roan, whose "various language" made me forget my anxious heart-aches for loved ones entombed within that vast "lazarhouse of many wees," poor strick-en Memphis. I will attempt a description of only two of the many grand features of the Roan sunset and sunrise; the silent elequence of which cannot fail to arouse the latent imnortality within even the most callous heart. After a hurried trip we reached the famous Sunset rock, and, oh! what magnificence burst upon us! Adown the slopes, for miles and miles around, vast mountain sides, covered with foliage of every conceivable tint, from the dark green of the balsam to the most delicate cream, relieved ever and anon by some bright red or reinved ever and anon by some bright red or rich golden tint—such coloring as only the beautiful yet mournfully prophet'c touch of autumn can bestow. Above, the gorgeous sun illuminating the surrounding peaks with most entrancing radiance. For only a moment the grandeur of this scene was ours. Then the sun, wrapped in the drapery of rose and pearl-tinted clouds, sank to rest be-hind distant mountains, leaving only a dis-

"Long, low and distant, where the Life that Is, Touches the "Life to Come." And we poor mortals left with hearts enraptured by the "eloquence of beauty" and souls awed by the eloquence of beauty and souls awed by the majesty of omnipotence. Again we resumed our march and soon reached the hotel, most appropriately called "Cloudland." After supper we amused ourselves by telling anecdotes and playing off jokes while seated around a huge log fire, the leaping flames thereof flecking our merry faces with alternate gleam and shadow. Next morning we were aroused by a loud rap on our door, and told to hurry if we wished to reach Sunrise rock before the sun awoke. So, hastily dressing, donning shawls, etc., we started off, reaching the rock in ample time. Strangely beautiful were the clouds, bled the foamy crest of a shifting sea, whose soundless waves seemed to lash the sides of "these hoary mountains," as the silent tones of memory, or the restless pangs of conscience, surge ever within the depths of saddened, wearied souls. Then, after feasting upon the many beautiful freaks of the clouds, we have the same time in 1878, and 688 in 1873. New cases yesterday, 12; to date, 1412.

MORTUARY REPORT -The weather wise, the Ledger man in-cluded, predict cooler weather for some time turned to gaze upon the sun, which rose just then in all its splendor over Grandfather mountain. For a while my heart was filled with ecstasy; then I thought of our poor suf-fering ones at home, till 'gainst my quiver-ing hds, I felt the touch of quick, hot tears, which, however, were forced back when I re-membered that I was not alone, but sur-rounded by those who might deem it affected or unwomanly, even if explained. So, bow-ing my head, I said a little prayer for the living, the dying, and for our dead, and turning sadly, and gazing again upon the rising sun, which now laved the surrounding summits and the rising mists from the slumbering vales below, with a flood of transcen-

WONDERFUL. Indianapolis, Ind., March 18, 1878.

J. C. Richardson, Sir;—Two of my children were everely attacked with Chills and Fever. I called our Family Physician who attended them without success, foolishly tried ague Pads, also without the slightest effect. When through the influence of Mr. Ballard we were induced to try your Clifford's Febriuge the effect was wonderful. The children did not have a Chill after taking the first dose and are now entirely well. Would not be without the remedy on any account. Yours, etc., GEO. WRIGHT.

THE BEST REMEDY

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Diseases of the pulmo-nary organs are so prev-alent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy safe and relianted for them is invaluable to every community.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is invalidated in the public is invalidated in the public in the publi AYER'S nently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the first drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to natients of any age or either asy. Being prompt and certain renet, and is anapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of Aver's Cherry Pecter, and controlled the control of the control of tarrh, the effects of Aver's Cherry Pec-Toral are magical, and multitudes are an-nually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the pro-tection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful. The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid. Prepared by Dr. J. C. OFFICE OF 45 Worth Street, NEW YORK, August 1, 1879. NEW YORK. August 1. 1879.

In order to avoid danger from the malady now extisting in the Mississippi Valley, we have deemed it better for both our customers and ourselves to tentrocarial to the cour memphis house and solicity our orders for Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Men's Furnishings, etc., from our office in New York. The advantages which this city can furnish in transportation facilities, in case Louisville, Cincinnati and St. Louis should also become (not improbable) isolated by rigid quarantines, induces us to adopt this policy, in order to furnish our friends with a more reliable assurance for obtaining their supplies. We will endeavor to faithfully fill any orders with which you may intrust us.

Please address, with specific snipping directions,

Wm. R. Moore & Co. P. O. Box 2698, 45 Worth St., New York. Remittances may be made by sight-draft postal-order, or currency by express. We will open BIG FRESH STOCK in Memphis after frost. DIVIDEND NOTICE.

OFFICE OF THE PLANTERS INSURANCE COMPANY, Memphis, July 9, 1879.

A T a meeting of the Board of Directors of this company, held this day, a semi-annual dividend of five (5) per cent. upon the capital stock was declared.

Our Memphis store will remain open during the fever, and customers will be supplied from here or St. Louis as they 'prefer THE SISTERS OF ST. AGNES ESPECTFULLY announce that their NEW ACADEMY, which was finished last June, will be opened for the reception of pupils as soon as the health of the city permits. Almost every arrangement has been completed for the comfort of those who may be committed to their care, and the Sisters hope that the perfect renovation of every portion of the building and the thorough dratning of the grounds during the past year, added to the fact that no case of fever or any disease whatever has occurred there, will be a sufficient guarantee to their friends and patrons of the healthfulness of the place, after the present season of danger shall have passed away.

This school is fast growing in public favor, and is really one of the very best training schools in the Southern States for boys and young men, as well as a first-class boarding school. CARLOS G, SMITH. MOBILE, Al.A., May 15, 1879.

I take pleasure in recommending this school to my friends and the public generally. The salubrity of the climate, the conduct of the domestic department, and the qualifications of the teachers, place the school in the first rank of educational institutions. This is really a Home School. The boys are well behaved and happy, and under the best domestic, educational and religious influences.
